3. Essay on My School in 200 Words

My school is a special place where I gain knowledge, develop good habits and prepare for the future. It is located in a peaceful area and has a clean, welcoming campus. The classrooms are airy and well arranged. Our school also has a library where students can read storybooks and reference books. A playground gives us space to play games and take part in physical activities.

The teachers in my school are caring and dedicated. They explain lessons in an easy way and help us when we find a subject difficult. I enjoy learning English, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies. Along with studies, our school encourages us to participate in sports, debates, drawing, music and cultural programmes.

Every morning, we assemble for prayer and important announcements. These activities teach us punctuality, confidence and respect. Our school celebrates national festivals and special days to help us understand our culture and responsibilities. We are also encouraged to keep our classrooms and surroundings clean.

I have many friends at school. We study together, share ideas and help one another. My school is not only a place for lessons; it is also where I learn teamwork, kindness and discipline. I am thankful to my teachers and proud of my school.

4. How to Write an Essay on My School

- Start with a simple introduction stating that your school is an important place in your life.
- Describe its location and building only if those details are true for your school.
- Mention facilities such as classrooms, a library, laboratories or a playground only when your school has them.
- Write about your teachers, subjects and activities.
- Explain what you learn beyond textbooks, such as discipline, teamwork and kindness.
- End with a personal sentence explaining why you feel happy or proud to study there.

5. Useful Vocabulary
